Do not allow lambskin gloves from frequent use of your rotary tool to become contaminated. Always remember that a careless fraction of a second is sufficient to inflict severe injury.

Do not alter an original tool. Any alteration or modification is a misuse and may result in serious personal injury.

This product is not intended for use as a dental drill or in medical applications. Serious personal injury may result.

When using the steel saw, cutoff wheels, high speed cutters or tungsten carbide cutters, always have the work securely clamped. Never attempt to hold the work with one hand while using any of these accessories. The reason is that these wheels will grab if they become slightly wobbled in the groove, and can kickback causing loss of control resulting in serious injury. Your second hand should be used to steady and guide the hand holding the tool. When a cutoff wheel grabs, the wheel itself usually breaks. When the steel saw, high speed cutters or tungsten carbide cutter grab, it may jump from the groove and you could lose control of the tool.

Label: This product is not intended for use as a dental drill.

- A man was once driving along a narrow, winding road, in his sedan, when all of a sudden, a woman driving a large Rolls Royce came hurtling around the corner, nearly driving him off the road. As she drove by the man, he heard her shout, “Pig!”
 - Immediately, the man retaliated by yelling back, “Fat old cow!”
 - Then he drove around the bend himself - and crashed head-on into the biggest pig he’d ever seen.

God gives us warning verses that we might be tempted to ignore

- That might be true when it was written, but this is 2020
- When it comes to the human heart - Ecclesiastes 1:9
NIV What has been will be again, what has been done will be done again; there is nothing new under the sun.

God give us warning verses that we might be tempted to ignore

- Jeremiah 17:9 NLT “The human heart is the most deceitful of all things, and desperately wicked. Who really knows how bad it is?
 - Deceitful – to grasp the heel (to trip), Crooked like rough uneven ground (to stumble)
 - Heart was the place where decisions were made, where emotions welled up

God give us warning verses that we might be tempted to ignore

- Jeremiah 17:9 NLT “The human heart is the most deceitful of all things, and desperately wicked. Who really knows how bad it is?
 - You cannot fully trust your heart of flesh
 - If you say, “Well I just think, or I feel, or It seems to me” you are using the heart of flesh that is deceitful

God give us warning verses that we might be tempted to ignore

- Ezekiel 36:26 NLT And I will give you a new heart, and I will put a new spirit in you. I will take out your stony, stubborn heart and give you a tender, responsive heart.
 - The purpose of the new heart is so we can be tender and responsive to the presence of God in our lives and hear His voice in His Word

- God has done and given us so much, but we still must walk our own life and are responsible for our own choices
 - Romans 14:12-13 NLT 12 Yes, each of us will give a personal account to God. 13 So let's stop condemning each other. Decide instead to live in such a way that you will not cause another believer to stumble and fall.

God give us warning verses that we might be tempted to ignore

- 1st Timothy 1:19 NLT Cling (bark on a tree) to your faith in Christ and keep your conscience clear. For some people have deliberately violated their consciences; as a result, their faith has been shipwrecked.
 - Shipwreck - Cast ashore; dashed upon the rocks or banks; destroyed

God give us warning verses that we might be tempted to ignore

- Shipwrecked faith, how do we get there?
 - Deliberately making decision that violate God's Word and Will in your life
 - How? It is a series of steps away from the side of Jesus with each step being greater until you find your life shipwrecked and it will not necessarily be obvious to you at the time

We will see this in the life of Peter

- Luke 22:54-62 NIV 54 Then seizing him, they led him away and took him into the house of the high priest. Peter followed at a distance. 55 And when some there had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and had sat down together. 56 A servant girl saw him seated there in the firelight. She looked closely at him and said, “This man was with him.” 57 But he denied it. “Woman, I don’t know him,” he said.

We will see this in the life of Peter

- Luke 22:54-62 NIV 58 A little later someone else saw him and said, “You also are one of them.” “Man, I am not!” Peter replied. 59 About an hour later another asserted, “Certainly this fellow was with him, for he is a Galilean.” 60 Peter replied, “Man, I don’t know what you’re talking about!”

We will see this in the life of Peter

- Luke 22:54-62 NIV Just as he was speaking, the rooster crowed. 61 The Lord turned and looked straight at Peter. Then Peter remembered the word the Lord had spoken to him: “Before the rooster crows today, you will disown me three times.” 62 And he went outside and wept bitterly

Peter's rough day

- Luke 22:24 NIV A dispute also arose among them as to which of them was considered to be greatest.
- Luke 22:31-33 NIV 31 “Simon, Simon, Satan has asked to sift all of you as wheat. 32 But I have prayed for you, Simon, that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers.” 33 But he replied, “Lord, I am ready to go with you to prison and to death.”

Peter's rough day

- Luke 22:34 NIV Jesus answered, "I tell you, Peter, before the rooster crows today, you will deny three times that you know me."
- Hear Jesus say to Peter, "Your heart is deceiving you."
- Peter's first denial was to a lowly servant girl
- Peter lied to her and it progressively worsened until he was calling curses upon himself if what he is saying is not true

- I want you to understand, each of us can have Peter moments in our lives where stubbornness and sinfulness opens a highway to our deceitful heart where we do not see the sin nor the hurt
- How did Peter get here?

He did not let Jesus be Jesus

- Peter did not recognize this Jesus
- Always before if Jesus was threatened, He just walked away without them touching Him – It wasn't His time
 - He could walk on water and calm storms with his words
 - He could raise a body that was dead

He did not let Jesus be Jesus

- He could still a crowd and oppressors with just His look and voice
- That Jesus Peter thought he understood
- This Jesus seemed to be giving up, not even fighting for what Peter thought was important

He did not let Jesus be Jesus

- Peter tried to defend Jesus as he said, Luke 44:49-51 NIV 49 When Jesus' followers saw what was going to happen, they said, "Lord, should we strike with our swords?" 50 And one of them struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his right ear. 51 But Jesus answered, "No more of this!" And he touched the man's ear and healed him.

He did not let Jesus be Jesus

- There will be times in your life where God will not respond as you think He should, and you will wonder if you really ever knew Him

He did not let Jesus be Jesus

- Isaiah 55:8-9 NIV 8 “For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways,” declares the Lord. 9 “As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.
- God is saying, “The depth of my thoughts is so vastly greater than yours and how I respond is far grander and higher. So much so you cannot grasp it ahead of time.”

He did not let Jesus be Jesus

- Even though Jesus told all the cross would happen, they could not grasp how this could happen to Jesus, so they did not listen, and all started to slide away from Jesus
- We must allow Jesus to be Jesus in our lives and hold loosely to everything earthly and hold tightly to the person of Jesus
- If not, we will become disappointed with Jesus

Disappointment, if left unchecked, has a drawing away effect on our relationship with Jesus

- Think of a sponge and water
- It really doesn't matter what the disappointment is
- If it is deep enough, or dark enough, it draws us away from the person of Jesus

Disappointment, if left unchecked, has a drawing away effect on our relationship with Jesus

- 1st Kings 19:1-3 NIV Now Ahab told Jezebel everything Elijah had done and how he had killed all the prophets with the sword. 2 So Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah to say, “May the gods deal with me, be it ever so severely, if by this time tomorrow I do not make your life like that of one of them.” 3 Elijah was afraid and ran for his life.

Disappointment, if left unchecked, has a drawing away effect on our relationship with Jesus

- Why did Elijah run like this?
 - He expected the nation of Israel to turn to God alone and for God to deal with King Ahab and Queen Jezebel and neither happened

Disappointment, if left unchecked, has a drawing away effect on our relationship with Jesus

- We find that here in Peter's life
- Vs. 54-55 Peter followed at a distance and he sat down with them
 - He blended in with the nonbelievers, it may have been some that arrested Jesus

Disappointment, if left unchecked, has a drawing away effect on our relationship with Jesus

- We find that here in Peter's life
- Vs. 56 a simple servant girl declared that Peter was with Jesus
 - Disappointment will lead to fear if you do not let Jesus be Jesus in your life

Disappointment, if left unchecked, has a drawing away effect on our relationship with Jesus

- Vs. 56 a simple servant girl declared that Peter was with Jesus
 - Peter's response, "Woman, I don't know him"
 - A little bit of truth here, "Woman, I don't know this Jesus."
 - And here you have justification for your actions and responses

Disappointment, if left unchecked, has a drawing away effect on our relationship with Jesus

- Vs. 58 “You also are one of them.” “Man, I am not!”
 - Not just with Jesus but you are one of the followers of Jesus
 - This is a more strongly worded denial than the previous

Disappointment, if left unchecked, has a drawing away effect on our relationship with Jesus

- Vs. 59 “Certainly this fellow was with him (in the garden when arrested), for he is a Galilean.” 60 Peter replied, “Man, I don’t know what you’re talking about!”
 - Matthew 26:74 NLT Peter swore, “A curse on me if I’m lying—I don’t know the man!”
 - With each decision Peter made, he moved farther from the side of Jesus

Thank God for the roosters in our lives

- Vs. 60b Just as he was speaking, the rooster crowed.
Vs. 61 NLT Suddenly, the Lord's words flashed through Peter's mind
- I wonder if Peter would have ever recovered if it had not been for the rooster crow right there
- Would he have gone away and just disappeared from the pages of scripture in constant denial of knowing Jesus?

Thank God for the roosters in our lives

- Would he ever have returned to the side of Jesus with full trust?
- Jesus loved and believed in Peter, but the old Simon had to be removed so the new Peter could emerge
- Sometimes our roosters are circumstances in our lives that stop us
- Sometimes God will use the love of our brothers and sisters in Christ to confront us

Thank God for the rooters in our lives

- Sometimes it is the Holy Spirit that grabs our heart and seems to rip it out
- Vs. 61 NLT at that moment the Lord turned and looked at Peter (and Peter looked at Jesus)

Thank God for the rooters in our lives

- This stopped Peter in his tracks and forced him to see himself clearly
 - Not the braggart but the denier
 - Not the most important disciple, but one not worthy to even be called a disciple

Thank God for the rooters in our lives

- He didn't make an excuse or justify his behavior; he now saw fully who Simon really was
 - One totally defendant on the Lord Jesus Christ
- There is one-word Jesus never used against Peter
 - Failure

Simon had to be set aside, so Peter could rise in newness of life

- Vs. 62 NLT and he went outside and wept bitterly.
- Simon was left in the tears of repentance and Peter arose

Peter could return to the disciples and Jesus only because what he knew Jesus had told him

- Luke 22:32 NIV 32 But I have prayed for you, Simon, that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers.”
 - Peter could return because Jesus had already prayed for it

Peter could return to the disciples and Jesus only because what he knew Jesus had told him

- Luke 22:32 NIV 32 But I have prayed for you, Simon, that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers.”
 - Peter could return because Jesus did not exclude him from the brothers - strengthen your brothers

Peter could return to the disciples and Jesus only because what he knew Jesus had told him

- Luke 22:32 NIV 32 But I have prayed for you, Simon, that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned back, strengthen your brothers.”
 - Peter could return because Jesus knew he would turn back – when (not if) you have turned back

Upon the foundation of Jesus Christ, Peter began to rebuild his life and, God used him mightily

- This is all available to us today when we find ourselves sliding from the side of Jesus
- When sin and fear have a hold of us, and our responses are anything but godly
- Tears of true repentance left on the ground will allow us run back to the side of Jesus

Upon the foundation of Jesus Christ, Peter began to rebuild his life and, God used him mightily

- He has already prayed for you
 - He has not excluded you from His Kingdom
 - He is looking down the road for your
- The only reason why is amazing grace that exceeds all our understanding
